

ART WITH BABIES!

Art in a Bag

This is a simple, no mess easy art activity to do with babies. Just dab some paint on paper or canvas, if you have it, and place inside a zip lock bag. Seal and let your baby play while making a masterpiece at the same time!

This idea also makes a great tummy time activity. This time, cover the paper with plastic wrap and seal the sides with tape.

Paint the Tub

This is a fun and easy activity for babies. Have your baby paint the tub with this easy and fun oatmeal paint recipe. $\frac{1}{4}$ cup baby cereal, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup water, and 3 drops food coloring. Not only is this sensory play, but also easy to clean up!

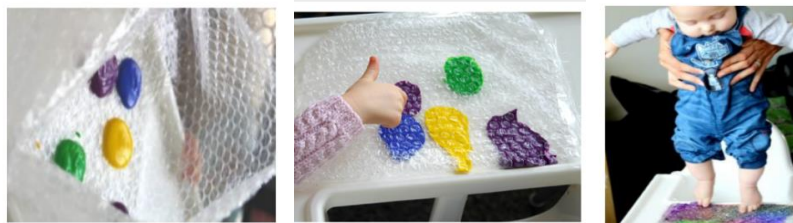

Taste Safe Ice Painting

This is an easy and safe painting activity. All you need is small pots (you can use yogurt containers) or ice cube trays, food coloring, water, and popsicle sticks. Fill each container with water, add a drop or two of food coloring, and place a popsicle stick in each one. Freeze and paint!

Bubble Wrap Painting

Fold a piece of bubble wrap in half. Place paper and paint in between and let baby move the paint around with their hands or use their feet to squish it around.

Handprint and Print Art.

This activity is fun for both baby and parents. This is a great and adorable way to make lasting memories.
